6. DATA SHARING

Why might we share personal data with third parties?

We will share personal data with third parties where we are required by law, where it is necessary to administer the relationship between us and our clients or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so.

Which third-party service providers process personal data?

“Third parties” includes third-party service providers and other professional advisers and other entities within members of our firm’s MGI network. The following activities are carried out by third-party service providers: IT and cloud based services, website hosting, data back-up, professional advisory services, and banking services.

All of our third-party service providers are required to take commercially reasonable and appropriate security measures to protect personal data. We only permit our third-party service providers to process personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

What about other third parties?

We may share personal data with other third parties, for example in the context of the possible sale or restructuring of the business. If a change happens to the business, then the new owners may use our client data in the same way as set out in these terms.

We may also need to share personal data with a regulator or to otherwise comply with the law.

7. TRANSFERRING PERSONAL DATA OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA (EEA)

We may from time to time transfer the personal data we collect about you outside of the EEA. Please be aware that the data protection laws and regulations that apply to your personal data in other countries may differ from the laws in the EU. We will use appropriate legal mechanisms and other safeguards to protect your personal data. For example, we may transfer personal data in accordance with standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission, which impose data protection obligations on the parties to the transfer.

8. DATA SECURITY

We have put in place commercially reasonable and appropriate security measures to prevent personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify the individual and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

9. RIGHTS OF ACCESS, CORRECTION, ERASURE, AND RESTRICTION

Individuals' duty to inform us of changes

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Should your personal information change, please notify us of any changes of which we need to be made aware by contacting us, using the contact details below.

Individuals' rights in connection with personal data

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal data. This enables you to receive details of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are processing it lawfully.
- Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you.
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this basis. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request the transfer of your personal data to you or another data controller if the processing is based on consent, carried out by automated means and this is technically feasible.

If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please email our data protection point of contact GDPR@muras.co.uk.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

10. RIGHT TO WITHDRAW CONSENT

In the limited circumstances where an individual may have provided consent to the collection, processing and transfer of their personal data for a specific purpose (for example, in relation to direct marketing that they have indicated you would like to receive from us), they have a right to withdraw consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please email our data protection point of contact GDPR@muras.co.uk

Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your personal information (personal data) for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.
